Books by UND faculty, 2016-2017
The following list of books by UND faculty was obtained through Digital Measures and from deans’ offices.

Odegard School of Aerospace Sciences
http://www.asa2fly.com/Aerodynamics-for-Aviators-P3488.aspx#Description

College of Arts & Sciences

Burgess, G. Working Title: Acting Empowerment: Rehearsal Techniques.
Acting Text: Series of Rehearsal Techniques as applied to Scene Study.

Caraher, W. (2016). The Bakken Goes Boom: Oil and the Changing Geographies of Western North Dakota. The Digital Press at the University of North Dakota:

Hans, B. “To Be Indian German Style”: Indian Hobbyists in Germany.

Schwalm, W. (in press). In Institute of Physics (IOP) (Ed.), Lectures on Selected Topics in Mathematical Physics: Lie Theory with Applications (pp. 79). London: (Book publisher) IOP Publications.

College of Business & Public Administration

Francis, Clare. Human Resource Management: Workbook of Learning Resources & Exercises (pp. 90 estimated total pages). Self Published via Amazon publishing arm: Create Space.

College of Education & Human Development

College of Engineering & Mines

School of Law

Associate Professor of Law, Eric E. Johnson, recently published a legal education casebook titled Torts: Cases and Contexts Volume 2. This book comes at the heels of Johnson’s Torts: Cases and Contexts Volume 1.

Anne Mullins & Tammy Pettinato, North Dakota Legal Research (CAP 2016).

School of Medicine & Health Sciences

College of Nursing & Professional Disciplines

